DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Schaefer et al. (U.S. 7,029,486).

Note in figures 1-4 and 8-17, a member (10) forms a series of at least four successive loops (14a and 14b), wherein each loops (14a,14b) having a different axis (16) and lying in a separate plane from any other loop and wherein each plane forming an angle greater than 30 degrees with any immediately proceeding and any immediately succeeding plane; and furthermore, wherein the loops (14a14b) can be wound in clockwise or counterclockwise direction and having a diameter smaller than a diameter of an immediately preceding loop.
